SUPPLY CENTERS

CELL SORTER & MISEQ

Supply Centers

The Thermo Fisher Supply Centers provide on-demand access to supplies. Now, you can purchase must-have materials as soon as you need them. Using customizable inventory management solutions you'll be able to improve your ability to maintain proper stock levels, control costs, retain open stock space, and anticipate future demand. If you do not have a supply center card, request one with Paola or Alyssa.

NEW! Cell Sorter & MiSeq

We are excited to continue adding instrumentation to the BioLabs collection. We recently received, installed, and led training on the NEW! Namocell Cell Sorter. Also, we've received our NEW! Illumina MiSeq. We know how important it is to be able to use these instruments as soon as they're in. Illumina will be on site for training on Oct 18-19 all day. Please email Alyssa if you would like to attend the training.

"The goal of education is not to increase the amount of knowledge but to create the possibilities for a child to invent and discover, to create men who are capable of doing new things."
